

On July 3rd, 2010 my daughter Tiffany and I left my abusive husband. We slept in our car a few nights. Were in a motel for a week and with friends for a few days until July 16th, when we moved into TLC. Neither of us ever wanted to be here at first. We never were in any situation like this before. We were scared. I was very depressed. However, in the short time we have been here, with Carissa and Doug's help, we have been able to find out about everything available to use.

We have just found out with their help that my daughter has a large sum of money due, so now we can find our own place to live. Without TLC I would have gone back to an abusive husband just so I would not have to be homeless, which may have cost me my life. Thanks to all at TLC for making our lives so much better!
